The document contains a map with various flood hazard areas and notes. It includes sections on Special Flood Hazard Areas (SFHA) and other features. The map is for Okaloosa County, Florida, and is preliminary as of April 29, 2016. The scale is 1:6,000, and the map number is 0416. The notes to users mention various hazards and features, such as areas subject to flood, coastal transect baseline, and water surface elevation (BFE). The map is available in digital format as well.